Madrid

Madrid, a city of inspiration where some of the world's most renowned artists have their treasured work exhibited in museums such as the Prado, the Thyssen-Bornemisza, and the Reina Sofia for all to admire.

Climate

Madrid's most pleasant seasons are Spring and Autumn (April through to June and September through to November) with an average temperature of 70-75 F.

Heritage

Imperial Monasteries, medieval ramparts, an entire city symbolizing the melding of cultures...an enrichment of customs and traditions.

Diversion and Vitality

"from Madrid to heaven"...as madrilenos would say...this city's "day" starts at night.

Excursions from Madrid

Not far away from Madrid and also worth a visit: Toledo, Segovia, Avila, Valle de los Caidos, El Escorial, Chinchon, Salamanca, Aranjuez, La Granja.

Barcelona

A mediterranean miracle perfectly situated overlooking the sea, is a city where the traditional and contemporary exist in perfect harmony. The works of Miro, Picasso and Gaudi come alive in the streets of this avant garde metropolis while sounds of its native 12th century language, catalan, can be heard throughout. If there's any place that has captured the essence of a mediterranean city in the third millenium... it is Barcelona.

Climat

Barcelona enjoys a mild mediterranean climate with the averages monthly temperatures ranging from 50°F through to 78°F.

Excursions from Barcelona

Not far from Barcelona and also worth a visit: Gerona, Montserrat, Figueres, Tarragona, Sitges, Costa Brava, Port Aventura.

Costa del Sol

This southern province is bathed by the mediterranean along 100 miles of lovely coastline & surrounded inland by lush subtropical plains. An occasional cluster of beautiful white villages can be seen nestled in its countryside. A city founded by the phoenicians, Malaga is considered the capital of the Costa del Sol. Rich in history, this bustling harbor is one of the most important tourist spots in Europe along with other towns which dot its coast: Torremolinos, Benalmadena, Fuengirola and Marbella.

PARADORES

To wander through corridors where the echo of history can almost be heard and to feel the richness of a heritage all about you... is to journey into Spain's paradores.

Housed in convents, medieval castles, palaces or in rustic settings, the paradores offer you the possibility of discovering the past... in the present.
