Departure dates 2012: Sundays, from March 25 to October 21

DAY 2: Morning arrival to Bilbao Airport. Your driver will transfer you to the hotel of your choice. Day at leisure, perhaps enjoying a Pinxtos cooking class.

DAY 4: Breakfast at hotel. Depart at your leisure towards Spain's wine region. This area, with the Duero River and rich plains, provides the perfect setting for some of Europe's most prestigious wines. Visit a winery and enjoy the scenery.

DAY 5: Breakfast at hotel. Depart for Barcelona. Rest of the day at leisure. Enjoy your complimentary tapa and wine and shopping discount at El Corte Ingles.

DAY 6: Breakfast at the hotel. Day at leisure to enjoy a Gaudi tour, visit the Picasso museum, or perhaps a cooking class.

DAY 7: Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to the port to board the Sovereign ship for the Breezes of the Mediterranean cruise for 6pm departure. Check in and then enjoy your all inclusive cruise.

DAY 8: Day at sea to enjoy your all inclusive ship. Visit the sauna or the solarium. Or perhaps try the climbing wall, fitness center, or one of 2 swimming pools. Also be sure to check out all 4 restaurants offered on board.

DAY 9: (7:00am). Early morning arrival to La Goulette in Tunis, the most northern country in Africa, but the city feels neither Arab nor African. It's a place where old and new mix, in both architecture (with Moorish and French influences) and way of life. During the 12th to 16th centuries, Tunis was considered one of the most important and wealthiest cities in the Arab world. Tuisia, the capital is only about 15minutes away.

DAY 10: (9:00am). Arrival to Naples. Whether enjoying a pizza, or venturing to historical Pompeii, or perhaps even a quick trip to Sorrento for a look at the Amalfi coast.

DAY 11: (8:00am). One day to explore Rome, definitely not enough. You will need to pick choose exactly what you want to see during your short time here.

DAY 12: (8:00am). Arrival to Livorno, located north of Rome on the western coast of Italy. A great port to explore either Pisa, with its famous leaning tower, or the beautiful city of Florence, where you can see David at the Accademia or the Giotto's bell tower.

DAY 13: Early arrival to Villefranche, France, from where you can visit Monaco or Monte Carlo. Too this town is a nice port for relaxing - much more laid back than other Cote d'Azur resort towns. Villefranche, whose old town dates back to the 14th century, evokes a romantic, historical feel. Back to the ship early to enjoy the many services that are available, next we are heading to Spain.

DAY 14: Arrive back to Barcelona at 9:00am, and your transfer will take you to the airport for your flight home or perhaps you would like to add on a couple of extra days in Spain.
